PREFACE

THE TRADE GOES ON

2020 has turned out to be an unique year. All countries were confronted by the outbreak of COVID-19 and after the first quarter we all became aware that the world, as we knew it before does no longer exist. The governments were forced to tell people how to live their lives, how long to wash their hands and how many households could meet. Shops and restaurants were closed and working in an office was reduced to the absolute minimum.

The flexibility of the oil trade showed that even when working from home the trades were done and execution of contracts could still be performed. Fortunately, our trade is very lively and despite a small drop in the vegetable oil prices in March 2020, the prices have recovered end of 2020 to a high level. We see a market dominated by Asia-Pacific for production as well as consumption. Even though the production in this region is high it is surpassed by the consumption.

We see in Europe a further roll out of the Green Deal with the Farm to Fork Strategy of the European Commission. Amongst others this will have effect on the usage of pesticides in the EU. Besides the EU reach the objective of at least 25% of the EU's agricultural land under organic farming by 2030 and a significant increase in organic aquaculture. This for sure will have opportunities as well as threats for the trade.

Due to the Centennial Celebration in 2018 and the award of the Royal Designation in 2019 these years can be considered festive years for NOFOTA, whereas no social events were possible in 2020. No annual dinner, no New Year reception and no trade course.

Even though it was not possible to meet in person NOFOTA made every effort to remain visible:

- Circular letters were as elaborate as possible to provide trade information.
- A digital training tool was introduced to the NOFOTA website, so members can test and train their trade and contract execution knowledge.
- NOFOTA explored possibilities for a trade platform for the trade in UCO's basis the NOFOTA Trading Rules.
- The Contract and Technical Committees amended certain parts of the Trading Rules.

We keep our focus on the future. We see light at the end of the tunnel. It will take still some time before enough people are vaccinated and we can safely organise events, and we do hope for a possibility to see each other again in person soon.

Keep faith!

Annemarie Keemink
President
